CENTRE SECURITY: There have been some occasions recently when the Centre has been left unsecured overnight. This involves particularly the fire door exit from the Foyer on the Stratford Road side. It arises because people leave the building through this door and do not realise that the door has to be locked from the inside by raising the handle. Whenever you are leaving the Centre and are responsible for locking up, can you please check that this fire door is properly locked. This applies even if you know you have not used it as the previous person locking up might not have checked it. Thank you for your help and co-operation. Management Committee.

JERUSALEM JOY: This is a well-known musical telling the story of Easter written by Roger Jones, a Christian composer of 24 musicals (and counting). It will be performed at Bromsgrove Baptist Church on Saturday 24th April. You are invited to spend the day with Roger learning 'Jerusalem Joy', also added songs from his 'Songs of Easter' collection. Roger says that whether you would like to be part of the choir, orchestra, or simply soak up the atmosphere in the audience for the performance proper, this will be a real 'fun' day. For more information, please speak to me xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx. Irene Rhead.

VACANCY – CHURCH COUNCIL SECRETARY: I shall cease being the Church Council Secretary after the Church AGM on 16th April. This is a vital role to ensure the actions of the Council are recorded and widely shared for ongoing information of all connected with Bromsgrove Methodist Church. The role involves the preparation and distribution of the Agenda and any reports as attachments, preferably in advance by email to those concerned (email list available). This minimises printing, and forewarns folk as to what is up for discussion. Take notes of the meeting, including discussion, decisions arrived at and actions to be taken and by whom. These are emailed as minutes//report, (including for inclusion in the next FORUM) to all concerned as soon as possible after the meeting, for early notification, and people are asked to print off and bring same to next Council meeting. The secretary needs to have typing skills, be able to send and receive emails and have knowledge of simple filing, as there is a paper record maintained for future reference, and for eventual archive storage. If you would like to offer for this post, which cycles at most 4 times a year, please let me know, and I will gladly discuss the roll. Thank you. John, Council Secretary. Tel xxxxxxxxxxxx – email: xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

GOD TALK: Mondays 11am in the Bromsgrove Methodist Church welcome Coffee Shop. Each week come along and Talk of God. It will be conversational, not over planned. Nobody will be forced to talk if they don't want to. But we will talk of God – our experiences, our journeys, our encounters, our understandings, our struggles, possibly even what we thought of Sunday's sermon! We may still end up talking about the weather, the cost of a loaf of bread etc, but let's be open and willing enough to talk with each other of God. It may just be that if we get more used to talking with each other of God that we will begin to find it a little easier to talk to others of God. Rev Steve Levett.

FORUM: The deadline for submission of items for the magazine is SUNDAY (19th). Please let me have any last minute contributions by e mail (xxxxxxxxxxxxxx) During this year I intend to use archive material relating to the 40 years of the Church Centre. This will include photographs provided by a few members of the congregation. If you do NOT want your photograph to appear in the magazine please let me know ASAP.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK - Hymn StF No. 277 (part)

1. My song is love unknown, my Saviour's love to me,
O who am I, that for my sake my Lord should take frail flesh and die ?
3. Sometimes they strew his way, and his sweet praises sing,
"Hosannas" to their king. Then "Crucify"...and for his death they thirst and cry.
5. They rise and needs will have my dear Lord made away;
A murderer they save, the Prince of Life they slay
6. In life, no house, no home, my Lord on earth might have; in death no friendly tomb,
But what a stranger gave. What may I say....mine was the tomb wherein he lay.
7. Here might I stay and sing, no story so divine:

Never was love, dear King, never was grief like thine !
This is my Friend in whose sweet praise I all my days could gladly spend.

REFLECTION – The cross is not mentioned in this hymn by Samuel Crossman, but it is at the heart of all his sentiments.

The cross is the central symbol of our faith as Christians, and we recognise an empty (unadorned) cross, to symbolise a risen Christ, as opposed to having a crucifix, depicting Christ on his cross.

The Jews were not authorised to carry out the death sentence, hence their handing over Jesus to be crucified, by the Roman authorities. Crucifixion was a tremendously cruel, horrific and drawn out way of dying, usually reserved for criminals.

Jesus knew he had to undergo this and told his disciples that God willed that he should die, and the account of his agony of doubt and dedication to God's will in Gethsemane proved his obedience to God.

Jesus' death is about sacrifice for sin, and his forerunner John recognised him as the chosen "Lamb of God" who takes away the sins of the world.

The hymn known as "My song is love unknown", is an attempt by Crossman to explain what Jesus' death means to an individual trying to comprehend it. Jesus himself summed up the purpose and meaning when speaking to Nicodemus, in John 3: 16 – "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not die, but have everlasting life"

Crossman sees himself as the recipient of Jesus' love, as he recalls the fickle crowd who first are shouting "Hosannas", then, stirred up by Jesus' enemies, they instead shout "Crucify him!"

The author says of Jesus that in contrast to Barabbas, who was a murderer, Jesus is the Prince of Life; he goes on to say that in Joseph of Arimathea's offer of a tomb, that Jesus was undeserving of dying, let alone having a tomb – yet he says, the tomb was where he was deserving to be – "Mine the tomb wherein he lay". In the final verse he acknowledges that this is a story we should stay and contemplate, and "sing" about, and give praise to one whom we have come to acknowledge as dear "Friend" and "King" in our relationship with God whose love reached its climax on the cross of Calvary. Every blessing, John.
